About Cardiff castle

Castle History

Cardiff Castle is one of Wales's biggest attractions. Mainly, because of its age. It has been standing for at least 2000 years. This Diagram shows what happened to the castle in 2000 years it has been around .

CARDIFF CASTLE - 2000 YEARS OF DEVELOPMENT

- 55-400 AD
The Romans establish a fort and Trading post in the area, eventually establishing the present site
- 1081-1150 AD
The Normans raise a mottle and bailey castle replacing their earlier wooden keep with the stone version
- 1200-1350 AD
The Black Tower is built and linked to the keep by a massive defensive wall
- 1400-1450 AD
The Octagon Tower and Hall Block is built by Richard Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick
- 1776-1800 AD
The 1st Marquess of Bute commissions Henry Holland to enlarge and alter the house
- 1868-1930 AD
The 3rd Marquess of Bute and William Burges transform the Castle in the Gothic Revival style, with further additions and restorations in the time of the 4th Marquess
