ROSA FIGHTS FOR RIGHTS!

Today in Montgomery a seamstress named Rosa Parks refused to give up her seat for a white person. Miss Parks was sat on the bus where all the ructions began. Miss parks sat there as the bus began to fill when one white man asked Miss Parks politely to move and to his disgust she refused so he asked her again and she still refused. He then went to complain to the bus driver about this ignorant woman. The bus driver stopped the bus go up shouted and screamed at Miss Parks and she still wouldn't budge, the bus driver then called the police who then physically removed her from the bus. Miss Parks was arrested and was then released with a $10 fine.

We then spoke to Miss parks to ask her why she caused this row and how she felt.

Miss parks why did you refuse to move for the white gentleman it is the rules? All I was doing was trying to get home from work and I was sick of being treated like a second class citizen.

How did you feel at the time you were arrested? At the time I was arrested I had no idea it would turn into this. It was just a day like any other day. The only thing that made it significant was that the masses of the people joined in.

That's all Miss Parks had time to say. Now a man called Martin Luther King is starting a bus boycott to stop segregation on buses and to let black people have the same freedom as white people. A lot of people at the moment have joined this campaign and it is still growing.

Will the still be segregation on buses and a year's time, and do you think black people should have the same freedom as us whites?
