Rosa creates mayhem!

Yesterday A woman called Rosa Parks age 42 refused to obey the bus driver James Blake. He ordered that she had to give up her seat for a white passenger. Which is right because white people are of a higher class than the blacks. Rosa chose to ignore James Blake and was very arrogant, she did not stand or say anything. The despicable woman carried on to refuse the white passenger of the seat. Further action then needed to be taken. The police where called to the scene to arrest Rosa as she still would not give her seat to the white passenger which is terrible. Rosa was then taken to jail and locked up. Only for a couple of hours though until someone bailed her out. She should still be in there though ho dare she refuse her seat to an innocent white person who does she think she is.
